

International Professional
Committee for the Safety of Journalists on Dangerous Missions

THE WORLD

A delegation representing both the world's non-Communist and Communist press will leave for Hanoi, with or without visas, in an effort to discover the fate of 17 newsmen missing in Cambodia. An official of the International Professional Committee for the Safety of Journalists on Dangerous Missions said his group had applied to the North Vietnam mission in Paris for letters of introduction which would automatically grant visas upon arrival in Hanoi.